

3 DAY BALLET INTENSIVE WITH NICOLE BONSALE

Open to all local dancers!

In addition to our regular summer evening class offerings, Brighton School of Ballet is honored to have Ms. Nicole Bonsalle teaching a 3 day intensive geared toward the upper-intermediate (Int. III) and Advanced/pre-professional levels. Each day will incorporate a ballet technique class, stretch and conditioning and pointe/variations (neo-classical/Balanchine or contemporary ballet excerpts).

Don't miss this great opportunity to challenge yourself to grow in technique, strength and endurance, while benefiting from the knowledge and experience of this wonderful teacher.

Nicole Bonsalle received her early training from her mother Julie Marie Bonsalle. She spent her Summers training on full scholarship at such prestigious schools as The Joffrey Ballet, Houston Ballet and Ballet West. Throughout her professional career, she danced as a principal dancer with the Alabama Ballet, as well the Atlanta and Houston Ballet. She was honored to have* danced for the Queen of Sweden and touring Taiwan performing Balanchine's Four Temperaments. Ms. Bonsalle continues to share her love of dance and technical expertise through teaching. She encourages dancers to embrace artistry and following their true passion.
